ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce
CHAS. J. RAY,
as Democratic candidate for Associate Judge of District No. 1, Montgomery County.

Champ Clark's Republican antagonist in the 9th district says "the woods in Missouri are full of Republicans," and he will make Mr. Clark aware that he is in a fight. If the 9th district were not gerrymandered its Republican majority would be several thousand. —Globe-Democrat.

The St. Louis Republic, that old Democratic political granny, in its stilted, awkward, wobbly way, is trying to throw a bomb of dissection into the Republican camp by arousing a prejudice between the Republican voters in the eastern and western portions of the state. It will not work, granny, will not work even a little bit in the Republican party. You will have to try some other game when it comes to doing things to the Republicans. They are not built on the same plan as the Democratic following.

The Republicans are such because they believe in the solid, sane, successful policies and principles of their party and are not so much concerned about where a strong, brainy, leading citizen lives as they are about his ability and loyalty to party principles.

It's true, granny, you can reach your Democratic following thru their prejudices. That's all there is to their faith except, perhaps, an amazing appetite for 'easy money' and political position on the part of their discredited, old fogey leaders. You are now furnishing a good illustration of what you can do in the party you represent in arraying one section of the state against another in your treatment of the candidacy of Reed of Kansas City and Francis of St. Louis for the United States Senate. Your successful work in arousing local prejudice between them has, this early in the campaign, made it a "good bet" that neither Reed nor Francis will be elected to the Senate, even if the people of Missouri should be foolish enough to elect a Democratic legislature.

Granny, you are a nuisance to your party and a joke to the Republicans. More power to you. You have lived a hundred years. May you live another hundred. The longer you live, the greater is sure to be the Republican majority in Missouri.

GOLD MEDAL CONTEST.

Last Saturday was a big day for Sup't W. F. Hupe's rural graduates. Besides the gold medal contest which was held at the Chautauqua tent, the graduates were regaled with a very fine address by State Superintendent H. A. Gass, were treated to ice cream by the confectioners, Hassler and Eugene, and were given free tickets to the afternoon program of the Chautauqua.

Great interest was manifested in the contest, some patrons coming 30 or more miles to attend. The class of about 50 graduates sat on the platform, and Mr. Gass was highly pleased with its appearance. He said it was second to none of its kind in the state. The class had pictures made which Mr. Gass will use in his next state report.

Local talent furnished some delightful music for the contest, which was highly entertaining and most enjoyable.

Each contestant acquitted himself with great credit, and the judges had considerable difficulty in awarding the premiums. They were finally awarded as follows: 1st—Ham Wyatt, gold medal valued at $8.

2d, Mattie Page of Minneola, $4 in cash.

3d, Vernie Dunard of High Hill, silk umbrella, $3.50.

4th, Fred Pearson of Middletown, rocker, $3.

5th, Lottie Brown of Mt. Carmel, two books, $3.

6th, Pearl Bratton of Bluffton, stand table, $2.50.

7th, Alma Katz, brooch, $2.

Mrs. J. W. Shores of Lacon, Ill., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. P. Sallee.

Poultry Department

All birds must be on the ground by noon the first day of the fair. All birds coming by express will be delivered to the grounds free. An entrance fee of 10c per bird will be charged. All exhibitors must furnish their own coops, which should be of regular size. All birds will be fed twice a day and watered. All birds will be in charge of the superintendent and can not be removed before 4 p. m. the last day. Birds showing signs of disease will be excluded from the show room and returned promptly to owner.

There must be two or more entries to procure 1st premium; if only one entry, second premium only will be awarded.

A competent judge will be on hand to award the premiums on the merits of the birds.
